Army Milestones

On June 14, 1775, the Second Continental Congress voted to establish an Army of 10 infantry companies. Since that humble beginning in defense of the nation, the Army has also contributed to medicine, exploration, engineering and science. The five- and 10-year milestones in this chronology offer only a small glimpse of that proud story of selfless service. It is also your story.

1700s

1776 — The Continental Congress creates the Board of War and Ordnance, a forerunner of the Department of Defense.

1776 — The night of Dec. 25-26, GEN George Washington leads a surprise attack on the Hessian garrison at Trenton, N.J.

1781 — On Aug. 21, Washington begins marching American and French forces south toward Yorktown, Va., and eventual victory over the British, Oct. 17.

1800s

1806 — Red River Expedition. On April 19 Soldiers from the 2nd Inf. Regt. escort a party of scientists and explorers up the Red River in the Orleans Territory.

1806 — The Lewis and Clark Expedition returns to St. Louis, Mo., on Sept. 23. Their 4,000-mile journey to the Pacific Coast and back advances scientific studies and greatly reinforces U.S. claims to the Oregon territories.

1881 — “The father of American bacteriology.” In April, MAJ George M. Sternberg is credited with discovery of the cause of pneumonia. His continuing research also leads to advances in the battles against cholera and yellow fever.

1881 — An Army scientific expedition of 24 men under LT Adolphus Greely departs May 7 to explore the Arctic. Stranded when supply ships fail to reach them, Greely and six other survivors are finally rescued in 1884.

1900s

1901 — Congress establishes the Army Nurse Corps, Feb. 2.

1906 — MG Greely assumes responsibility for disaster-relief operations in San Francisco after the city is heavily damaged by a major earthquake, April 18-19.

1906 — In December the Department of War directs the first use of metal identification tags, soon to be nicknamed by Soldiers as “dog tags.”

1936 — In November Army pilots set a new high-altitude record of 14 miles in the balloon “Explorer.”

1941 — The Military Police Corps is established on Sept. 26.

1941 — Following the Dec. 7 attack on Pearl Harbor, GEN George Marshall approves plans for a 2-million-man Army of 100 divisions. On Luzon, American and Philippine units withdraw to Bataan.

1946 — Army Information Digest, the forerunner of Soldiers magazine, is established in May.

1951 — The 23rd Inf. Task Force stops the Chinese army at Chipyong-Ni, Korea, Feb. 13-15.

1951 — On Mar. 7 Eighth Army forces launch Operation Ripper to recapture Seoul, Korea.

1951 — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur delivers his famous “Old Soldiers Never Die” speech to Congress, April 19.

1966 — In its first firefight of the Vietnam War, the 11th Armored Cav. Regt. is ambushed near Suoi Cat, South Vietnam, on Dec. 2.

1976 — On July 7 the U.S. Military Academy enrolls its first female cadets. Of the 119 women who enter, 62 finish and are commissioned in 1980.

1981 — The Vietnam War Memorial is dedicated in Washington, D.C., on Nov. 13.

1981 — On Dec. 17 members of the Italian “Red Brigade” terrorist organization kidnap BG James L. Dozier. Italian police and a Delta Force team free him in January.

1991 — Offensive ground action of Operation Desert Storm begins, Feb. 23. The successful campaign to drive Iraqi forces from Kuwait lasts 100 hours.

1811 — Battle of Tippecanoe. On Nov. 7 the 4th Inf. Regt. and Kentucky militia defeat Shawnee warriors to secure the Indiana frontier.

1846 — Congress establishes the 2nd Regt. of Dragoons on May 23. The unit exists today as the 2nd Armored Cav. Regt.

1846 — After repeated disputes, the United States declares war on Mexico on May 13.

1861 — First Battle of Bull Run. On July 21 Union forces attempt to capture the rail town of Manassas, Va., but are routed by Confederate forces.

1861 — On Aug. 28 an Army/Navy amphibious force under MG Benjamin Butler takes Fort Hatteras and Fort Clark, N.C., capturing more than 700 Confederates.

1861 — Union Soldiers in Virginia loft a gas-filled balloon on Sept. 24 to observe troop movements and adjust artillery fire using telegraph communications between air and ground crews.

1866 — President Andrew Johnson signs a Congressional act on July 28 establishing four black infantry regiments (38th, 39th, 40th and 41st Inf.) and two black cavalry regiments (9th and 10th Cav.).

1876 — Sioux Indian War. At Little Big Horn, Mont., COL George A. Custer and 264 Soldiers of the 7th Cav. Regt. are killed on June 25.

1911 — In March the Army adopts the Model 1911 .45-caliber pistol.

1911 — The first Army pilot school is established, April 11, at College Park, Md.

1911 — The School of Fire is established at Fort Sill, Okla., on June 11. It is redesignated the Field Artillery School in 1919.

1916 — Mexican Punitive Expedition. BG John J. Pershing, with 6,000 men, pursues Pancho Villa into Mexico, in March. The expedition provides opportunities to experiment with new technologies such as motorized units, airplanes and field radios.

1921 — The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier is dedicated Nov. 11 at Arlington National Cemetery, Va.

1926 — Congress establishes the Army Air Corps, July 2.

1926 — In December the Army replaces the high “choke” collar uniform blouse with an open-lapel design.

1951 — Battle of Heartbreak Ridge. On Oct. 15 the 2nd Inf. Div., supported by South Korean and French units, seizes the ridge but suffers nearly 3,700 casualties in the process.

1951 — Operation Piledriver is launched in June against communist forces. It is the last large United Nations offensive of the Korean War.

1956 — The Army successfully fires the first Redstone rocket, from White Sands Proving Ground, N.M., Feb. 21.

1956 — On June 12 the Army adopts its official flag in a ceremony at Independence Hall in Philadelphia, Pa.

1956 — In September the Army adopts a new green uniform with black shoes, ending the days of the “brown shoe” Army.

1956 — In response to the Hungarian Uprising, the 6th Armored Cav. Regt. is placed on alert on Oct. 23 and deploys along the East German border.

1956 — The last two Army pack-mule units, the 35th Quartermaster Co. and Battery A of the 4th Field Arty. Bn., are inactivated at Fort Carson, Colo., in December. The Army also discontinues the use of carrier pigeons.

1991 — In March the 24th Inf. Div. defeats the Iraqi Hammurabi Division when it violates the cease-fire.

1991 — As part of Operation Provide Comfort, Army units deploy to Turkey and northern Iraq in April to protect Kurdish refugees from Iraqi attacks.

2000s

2001 — Hijacked aircraft hit the World Trade Center in New York City and the Pentagon, near Washington, D.C., on Sept. 11. National Guard and Reserve units activate to respond to the attacks.

2001 — Operation Enduring Freedom begins on Oct. 7. The mission is to seek out and destroy terrorist camps and infrastructure within Afghanistan, capture al Qaeda leaders and remove the Taliban regime.

2001 — Elements of the 10th Mountain Div. arrive in Afghanistan, on Nov. 28. They are the first conventional troops deployed by the United States into the troubled nation.

2001 — Three special forces Soldiers are the first Americans killed in Afghanistan when, on Dec. 5, a B-52 mistakenly bombs their position. Twenty others are wounded.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARMY LEADERSHIP

As we celebrate this holiday season, we should also celebrate the spirit of the American Soldier. For more than 230 years, this spirit led America's men and women to courageously answer the call to duty and help preserve liberty throughout the world. Today, this same noble spirit inspires our Soldiers as they simultaneously fight the war on terror and transform the Army to meet future challenges.

This holiday season should also be a time of remembrance. We should remember our Soldiers deployed in 120 countries around the world. Likewise, we should keep in our hearts our family members while their loved ones are far from home. And of course, we will always remember our Soldiers who never returned from the fight, and their families.

May you all have a safe and enjoyable Holiday Season. May God bless the men and women in our Army. And may God bless our wonderful country.
